Of Local Interest

WILL PRACTICE LAW HERE.
An addition this week to the Phoenix bar is Walter P. Sellers, a graduate of Princeton and formerly a member of the firm of Alexander & Green of New York city. Mr. Sellers spent last winter in Tucson with relatives. He was recently admitted to the practice of law in this territory and has taken offices with Mr. Seabury in the Fleming building.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—The annual Thanksgiving service and harvest home festival will be held in Trinity cathedral tomorrow at 10 o'clock. There will be addresses by ex-Governor Kibbey and Bishop Atwood. The offering will be for the benefit of the Associated Charities, while the fruits, flowers and vegetables used to decorate the church will afterward be sent to St. Luke's home to cheer the patients.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—In keeping with the Thanksgiving day proclamation of the president and governor, tomorrow the Christian Science churches in the United States will hold services for which a special lesson-sermon entitled "Thanksgiving" has been prepared. The service in the Phoenix church, located in the postoffice building, will be held at 10:45 a. m. The order of the exercises will be as follows: Organ voluntary; hymn; reading of the Thanksgiving proclamation of the governing of the state; reading of Scriptural selection; silent prayer, followed by the audible repetition of the Lord's prayer with its spiritual interpretation as given in the Christian Science text-book; hymn; reading of explanatory note in regard to the lesson-sermon; responsive reading by the first reader and the congregation; reading of lesson-sermon; solo; testimonies by Christian Scientists; hymn; reading of Scientific Statement of Being and the correlative Scripture according to I. John, 3:1-2-3; pronouncing benediction.

GONE TO SAN DIEGO.—R. L. Arthur left yesterday for San Diego after a month's stay in Phoenix with friends.

BACK TO OAKLAND.—Mrs. M. H. Morton of Oakland, Cal., left for her home, via the Arizona Eastern, yesterday afternoon.

EAST VIA THE WEST.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradshaw departed for Los Angeles yesterday. From there they will go to the Grand Canyon, and thence back to their home in Milwaukee.

HERE FOR THE WINTER.—S. L. Bartram who came here recently from Aurora, Ill., has accepted a position with the Tribolet Market as bookkeeper, and will spend the winter in Phoenix.

RETURN TO OHIO HOME.—Mrs. Elmo Davis and her little son of Dayton, Ohio, started upon their journey home yesterday after spending some months in Phoenix. Mr. Davis will remain here during the winter.

CHICAGO MAN WRITING OF VALLEY.—James W. Shaw of Chicago, business manager of the National Land and Irrigation Journal is looking over the city and valley preparatory to writing a description of the irrigation project for his magazine.

BARACA CLASS.—The Baraca class of the First Baptist church has taken on new life and is a hustling body of young men. Forty were in attendance for the study of the Bible Sunday morning. A hearty welcome is extended to all young men.

THANKSGIVING RATES.—On November 29 and Nov. 30 the S. P. & P. railway will sell round trip tickets between all stations on its line for one and one-third fares, for the benefit of all Thanksgiving travelers. The ticket must be used by December 4th.

RESULT OF INQUEST.—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Grace E. Marsh who died night before last, was that death was the result of "gun shot wounds inflicted by her own hands." She was twenty years old and a native of Pennsylvania.

AT CASTLE HOT SPRINGS.—The week's arrivals at Castle Hot Springs hotel include: Alfredo Rodriguez and family, Santiago Rodriguez and man servant, Mexico City, Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lippincott, Wyncote, Pa.; Mr. J. L. Oakleaf, Moline, Illinois.

SPECIAL RATES TO OMAHA.—A special rate has been announced on both the Arizona Eastern and the S. P. & P. railways to Omaha and return during the month of December, of $60.20, round trip. This is a reduction of several dollars over the regular rate, and is made for the benefit of those wishing to attend the convention of the National Wool Growers' association at Omaha in December. The tickets will be on sale from Dec. 5 to Dec. 11, and must be used by December 31.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—The annual Thanksgiving service of the Protestant churches of Phoenix will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Mr. Phillips of the First Christian church. The music will be furnished by the choir of the First Methodist church. An earnest and cordial invitation is extended to all. The church is located on the corner of Second avenue and Monroe street.

TEASLEY LOCATED.—W. H. Teasley, for many years a resident of Phoenix, has gone to Los Angeles where he has been made corresponding secretary of the Los Angeles Investment Company. This is an institution engaged in house building particularly making the proud boast that it has erected 1,500 homes in that city. His offices are No. 333-337 South Hill street. Mr. Teasley writes that he is well satisfied and prosperous and will be glad to meet any of his Phoenix friends who travel in that direction.

THE TYPEWRITER MAN—O'NEIL.—HAS NEW OFFICE.—Mr. W. D. O'Neil has opened new offices in the basement of the Goodrich building at the corner of Center and Washington streets. Mr. O'Neil is the Arizona representative for the L. C. Smith & Bros. typewriter but he also handles second hand machines of every kind, color and previous condition of service. Office supplies and furniture may also be purchased of Mr. O'Neil and unlimited information regarding this varied assortment of things. This gentleman has lived in the territory a number of years and is well and favorably known as the "Typewriter" man.

SUNDAY AT MOUNTAIN RESORT.—Perfect weather and a splendid road attracted many automobile and motorcycle parties on Sunday to Castle Hot Springs. Some simply made the trip from Phoenix and returned the same day, remaining long enough to enjoy a swim in the pool and the good dinner always a feature at this hotel, and on Sunday an especially fine one is served. Others remained over night, thus having time for a ride or walk over the trails. Among the automobilists may be mentioned Louis Pannery, Phoenix; Jean Jansen, Phoenix; T. Verwilyken, St. Nicolas, Belgium; Miss Cecelia Steinemann, Minister, Ohio.

HELD TO ANSWER.—Howard Reed of the reclamation service, engineer in charge of the administration of the canals, was brought before Justice Johnstone yesterday on the charge of aggravated assault, and held to answer to the grand jury on a bail of $200 which was furnished by E. J. Bennett and H. I. Latham. The charge was brought against Mr. Reed on complaint of E. E. Jack who lives near Glendale. The men had engaged in a controversy on Sunday, concerning water, which became so acrimonious that Mr. Reed went to the home of Mr. Jack and presented formidable fistful arguments. Mr. Jack responded in kind and with vigor. The matter seemed to have been settled but on Monday Mr. Jack decided to refer it to the court.

VISITING HER AUNT.—Mrs. H. B. Townsend and son George of Los Angeles, came in this morning to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Townsend's aunt, Mrs. S. E. Kelso of 612 N. Second avenue. They are on their way to join Mr. Townsend in Oklahoma.

EL NAVARRO CLUB PERFECTS ORGANIZATION.—At a second meeting in Donofrio's convention room last night there was further organization of a dancing club composed of fifty members, to be called the El Navarro Dancing Club. Dances will be given every two weeks throughout the season.

ANDY DRUNK AGAIN.—Andy Garcia is a regular cutup. Andy had partaken too liberally of the cup that cheers yesterday and was exciting attention by certain uncertain antics down by the postoffice when he proceeded to clean off a nice place upon the sidewalk, curled up and went to sleep—to sleep, to snooze, to slumber, much to the curiosity and entertainment of the onlookers, until the patrol wagon came along, and harvested Andy and took him back to the place of beginning. Andy's place of beginning is at the city hall, his life revolves around it, is a part of it, and it for him.

MOTORISTS ARRESTED.—The speedometer of Dan Hosmer, motorcycle policeman, has been out of working order for a few days, but the machine was put in commission again yesterday, and two more motorists were arrested for violating city ordinance number 486, which forbids driving an automobile at a speed greater than twelve miles an hour inside the city limits.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT WILL NOT MEET TODAY.—Miss Sharlot Hall, chairman of the history department of the Woman's club, wishes it announced that there will be no meeting of that department today as was formerly announced, as so many of the ladies who belong, have been actively engaged in working for the bazaar which occurred yesterday, and are necessarily greatly fatigued.

BISHOP KENDRICK RECOVERING.—Many Phoenix people have been made happy by the news of Bishop Kendrick's returning health. A short time ago his life was despaired of and the members of his family gathered at his bedside. His recovery now seems so certain that his daughter, Mrs. Howe Williams, has returned to her home in this city. The Bishop is at present in a hospital in Pasadena. He has a sister and her family who are residing in that city.

TO VISIT IN COLORADO.—H. A. Corther, a rancher of Gila county, was in town yesterday on his way to Durango, Colo., for a visit to his parents. Durango is in the southwest part of Colorado, but the railroad connections are so poor that Mr. Corther must go down through southern Arizona, and into New Mexico, thence back northwest and finally after three days of traveling to Durango. He makes seven changes before he reaches his destination.
